Forecast for Sunday 28 Aug 2022

Weather: Any early morning mist and fog patches soon lifting and clearing, leaving the Brecon Beacons with long sunny spells. It will be a little hazier than of late with high level cloud covering the whole region at times. Cloud bubbling up during the afternoon in places with an outside chance of an odd shower mid-afternoon.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 90%

Low cloud and visibility: Early morning mist and fog patches reducing visibilities in places, however this will soon lift leaving very good visibilities across the park with distant hills and summits clearly visible. Cloud bases well above the level of summits throughout the day. Isolated showers leading to temporary deteriorations.
